SENATE BILL

No. 641

Introduced by Senator Polanco

February 25, 1997

An act to amend Section 1270.1 of the Penal Code, relating to bail.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 641, as amended, Polanco. Pretrial release: failure to appear.

Existing law requires that a hearing be held before any person who is arrested for a violent felony or certain other offenses involving spousal rape, domestic violence, or harassing and threatening another person is released on bail in an amount that is more or less than the amount contained in the schedule of bail for the offense, or on his or her own recognizance.

This bill would ~~add~~ extend the application of this provision to persons who are arrested for ~~and charged with serious felonies other than residential burglaries, to whom that provision applies.~~ The bill would ~~establish the burden on the~~ ~~prosecution to present~~ require that the court consider evidence regarding release of the person detained, as specified, and would require the court to appoint defense counsel for the hearing. By imposing increased duties on local criminal justice systems that are equivalent to those imposed by the establishment of a new crime, the bill would create a state-mandated local program.

The California Constitution requires the state to reimburse local agencies and school districts for certain costs mandated by the state. Statutory provisions establish procedures for making that reimbursement.

This bill would provide that no reimbursement is required by this act for a specified reason.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes. State-mandated local program: yes.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1270.1 of the Penal Code is
2 amended to read:

3 1270.1. (a) Before any person who is arrested for ~~and~~
4 ~~charged with~~ any of the following crimes may be released
5 on bail in an amount that is either more or less than the
6 amount contained in the schedule of bail for the offense,
7 or may be released on his or her own recognizance, a
8 hearing shall be held in open court before the magistrate
9 or judge:

10 (1) A serious felony, as defined in subdivision (c) of 11 Section 1192.7, or a violent felony, as defined in 12 subdivision (c) of Section 667.5, but not including a
13 violation of subdivision (a) of Section 460 (residential 14 burglary).

15 (2) A violation of Section 262, 273.5, or 646.9.

16 (3) A violation of paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of 17 Section 243.

18 (b) The prosecuting attorney and defense attorney
19 shall be given a two court-day written notice and an
20 opportunity to be heard on the matter. If the detained
21 person does not have counsel, the court shall appoint
22 counsel for purposes of this section only. The hearing

1 required by this section shall be held within the time
2 period prescribed in Section 825.

3 (c) At the hearing, ~~it shall be the prosecuting~~
4 ~~attorney's burden to present~~ the court shall consider
5 evidence of past court appearances of the detained
6 person, ~~to indicate the~~ the maximum potential sentence
7 that could be imposed, and ~~to present evidence regarding~~ 8 the danger that may be posed to other persons if the 9 detained person is released. In making the determination
10 whether to release the detained person on his or her own
11 recognizance, the court shall consider the potential
12 danger to other persons, including threats that have been 13 made by the detained person and any past acts of 14 violence. The court shall also consider any evidence
15 offered by the detained person regarding his or her ties
16 to the community and his or her ability to post bond.

17 (d) If the judge or magistrate sets the bail in an amount
18 that is either more or less than the amount contained in 19 the schedule of bail for the offense, the judge or 20 magistrate shall state the reasons for that decision and
21 shall address the issue of threats made against the victim
22 or witness, if they were made, in the record. This
23 statement shall be included in the record.

24 SEC. 2. No reimbursement is required by this act
25 pursuant to Section 6 of Article XIII B of the California
26 Constitution because the only costs that may be incurred
27 by a local agency or school district will be incurred
28 because this act creates a new crime or infraction,
29 eliminates a crime or infraction, or changes the penalty
30 for a crime or infraction, within the meaning of Section
31 17556 of the Government Code, or changes the definition
32 of a crime within the meaning of Section 6 of Article
33 XIII B of the California Constitution.

34 Notwithstanding Section 17580 of the Government
35 Code, unless otherwise specified, the provisions of this act
36 shall become operative on the same date that the act
37 takes effect pursuant to the California Constitution.
